Each award must have at least one Project per distinct F&A Rate location. Projects signify a discrete set of activities or initiatives for which spending must be separately tracked. Information about each Project is displayed on the Project Detail Page.

This page can also be accessed by Main Menu > Grants > Awards > Project

Key data include:

a. Project ID - Numerical characters of the Award ID followed by a letter in alphabetic order, excluding I and O.¹
b. Project Type - Directly related to the Contract Type, which identifies how UCSF is reimbursed. Type effects transaction processing and billing.
c. Description – Represents the formal name for the project; the naming conventions is the Award Reference Number followed by the PI’s Last Name

There is one-to-one relationship between F&A locations and projects. If a project moves to another F&A location during the award lifecycle, then this information will be updated with an effective date. See the Updating Project Details for the Location listing.
l. Project F&A Information – Summary F&A information is displayed here; see the section Project F&A Rate Information that follows for more details

RAS Quick Reference Guide

Award Synopsis (PeopleSoft Navigation: Main Menu > Grants > UCSF Reports > Award Synopsis)

A system generated report that recaps key data elements for an award, as established in RAS, as of the point in time or sequence that the report is created. Designed to be used as a tool when a new award is established or after an award modification. It can also be used throughout the award lifecycle as reminder of key compliance requirements and milestones.

1. To generate an Award Synopsis:
   a. Enter the Award ID or Project that you wish to review on the Find an Existing Value tab
   b. Click Search

   It is recommended that you run the report at the Award level

2. The Award Synopsis Tab displays
   a. Select the Sequence that you want to review. The sequence refers to the sequence on the award modifications link from the Award Modifications. It is recommended that you run the report with the default or most recent sequence.
   b. Click on Generate Form

   The report renders in PDF format and opens in Adobe Acrobat.

   The Award synopsis that is generated reflects the cumulative actions of all sequences to date including milestones, terms and attribute changes made to the award since set-up. Carefully review effective dates of these details to understand if they were in affect at the time being reviewed.

   Financial information is specific to that sequence action in the Funds Awarded by this Action section and Cumulative in the Funds Awarded to Date section.
Tips & Tricks

In the upper right-hand corner of the PeopleSoft banner, use the New Window link to open a new browser window/tab within the same RAS instance.

- When linking a continuation proposal to an existing award, the second window helps ensure you are selecting the correct award before associating it with the proposal in the other window/tab
- Opening multiple windows can cause clashes between data; remember to close the tab when finished using the X icon and not the Sign Out link. If you Sign Out, all open RAS windows-tabs are closed.

Every component has links on the bottom of the page that navigate to the same tabs as at the top of the page

At the top of any PeopleSoft component where rows of data can be added, use the icons and links provided to:

- Find a particular search string
- View All available records on one scrolling page
- Download the records to Excel
- Move through pages of results

If you have trouble with a button or icon in PeopleSoft, ensure your pop-up blocker is disabled

Even if a field is not editable, you can still select and copy the data to paste into a search filter

If you have further questions about RAS or specific functionality, additional training can be found on the Controller’s Office website.
